

Small Space, Big Flair Exhibition by MobArt at PMQ

Posted in Art

By Butterboom Writers / March 23, 2015

MobArt – the mobile gallery – will hold a pop-up art exhibition and store at the PMQ from now till 30th April 2015. Calling it Small Space, Big Flair, the project will feature 50-plus artists showcasing a variety of artwork in various sizes and medium to revive the concept of a home, as a tribute to PMQ's heritage as a home for married police officers. The artworks will be hung close to each other, from floor to ceiling in multiple rows, giving the entire exhibition a rather eclectic mix. Artworks will be replaced and changed from time to time so it serves well to visit the exhibition more than once. The artworks on site will also be available for sale.

Looking for Shops?

[search our
shop directory](#)

[check out our
shopping guides](#)