MobArt is proud to present a whole new form of Art in collaboration with Sara's Henna. It showcases two forms of Art: The Henna Art by Sara Mush and the photography by Joyce Kenneth Lim. This is an unprecedented collaborative project for MobArt and part of our pre sales of artworks will be in aid of the worst humanitarian crisis in Sara's home country, the Pakistan.

Hen.na (noun)

The powdered leaves of a tropical shrub, used as a dye to color the hair and decorate the War.ri.or (noun)

A person who shows great vigor and follows a specific code of conduct which values honor and courage.

Henna Warrior: A strong female personality, who is not afraid of the unknown, and is determined to accomplish the goals she has set for herself. The Henna Warrior is adaptable and flows with the currents of the fast-paced modern world while remaining close to her roots. Because it is not permitted to express herself in a reflective and re-inventive way. Henna is her haven.

The "Henna Warriors" exhibition ties in 4 months of connecting individuals, crossing borders, and showcasing the power of the traditional form of Henna Art. This campaign aims to create awareness and break the boundaries of henna design by invigorating traditional eastern henna with modern art to portray the strong personalities of HK's modern entrepreneurial women.

Henna has always been Sara's passion, and she is proud to share it with the world. It has to be adapted to the fast-paced modern world while remaining close to her roots. Because it is not permitted to express herself in a reflective and re-inventive way. Henna is her haven.

Sara's inspirations for this campaign are four entrepreneurial women in Hong Kong who are from the corners of the globe. The patterns and designs on the specific parts of their body represent vitality and vigor. The designs also draw inspiration from quotes by Paulo Coelho's book 'The Alchemist' and these quotes act as reflections of the henna warriors.

About Sara's Henna

Sara is a third cultured individual who is always eager for challenges and unique experiences.

phase of her life. Since graduating from Loughborough University a year ago, Sara became involved in the emerging handmade arts scene in Hong Kong and saw the need for creating awareness of traditional and cultural forms of art. She has since established her own free school called "Sara's Henna".

"Sara's Henna" stems from her need to put her passion and endless energy to produce the traditional art of Henna in Hong Kong. Sara strives to bring together people from all backgrounds through this exotic art and the unique events she organizes and takes active to color Hong Kong with Henna till every person from young to old has had this unique experience once in his or her lives!
