Last week I invited you to next Friday's (22 October) Henna Warrior Exhibition sponsored by MobArt that will be held at Philia Home. It should be a fun and creative evening and I am really looking forward to checking out Philia Home as I have only been to their lounge on Arbuthnot Street. Sara from Sara's Henna has been working so hard for a very long time to make this exhibition a success and I can't wait to see all the final pics she has chosen to showcase her magnificent henna work.

Sara has agreed to give me some behind the scene preparation pics and I couldn't wait to show them to you. The henna that I had was on my back and down my right arm and leg and I just thought it was so incredible and intricate. I think everyone's henna looks stunning and I am in love with the tiger on Joyce Yung's shoulder – it is just amazing work.

This is just a teaser of what Sara has planned to show on Friday so I do hope to see you at the exhibition. Details are below and the first 50 people to come by receive a goodie bag so make sure you come early!
