THE FABRICATION is a collection of works by the artist, including a large-scale painting of a landscape with a prominent white, cloud-like form in the sky. The artist's style is characterized by soft, blended colors and a focus on light and shadow. The exhibition is held at the epöch gallery, which is a well-known space for contemporary art in Hong Kong. The works are displayed in a bright, minimalist setting that allows the viewer to appreciate the subtle details and textures of the paintings.

The exhibition is a must-see for art lovers, as it offers a unique opportunity to see the artist's work in person.
